

In the name of God Amen,
 State of Georgia. I, James Allen Anderson, being lawfully test of law made, and having in view the Mortality of my body, do make and constitute this my last Will & Testament. I resign my soul to God, who gave it, and my body to the dust, having confidence in God's word that it shall rise again in the morning of the Resurrection, as to my debts, I make no provision having none but what my wife will settle. I do give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Alice Anderson all my Estate, both real & personal, during her life or widowhood, that she may be able to raise & educate my little children, and at her death or marriage. My wife is that my property, what is then left, should be equally divided among my children, and I do hereby nominate my wife Alice Anderson, my son William Anderson & my trusty friend James P. McCall my executors. In witness whereof I have set my hand & seal this 10th day of Feb 1826. Vegeckish A. Anderson (P.D.)
